Indiana State Police Seeking Information on the Whereabouts of America's Most Wanted Steven R. Farrell Offer WeTip ANONYMOUS Hotline to Informants

Tippecanoe County: The Indiana State Police is announcing today cooperation through the Tippecanoe County Prosecutor's Project Safe Neighborhoods Initiative, with the national non-profit crime tip line WETIP in the search for Steven R. Farrell

WeTip is a 100% confidential tip line that is staffed 24 hours a day with live operators to take calls from the public, who prefer not to make direct contact with law enforcement. The WeTip Hotline number is 1-800-78-CRIME or 1-800-782-7463. Anyone with information on Steven R. Farrell is encouraged to call WeTip.

Steven R. Farrell is wanted in the murder of Christine R. Craig who was shot to death on a rural road in Benton County Indiana on Friday November 27, 2009. Farrell is to be considered armed and dangerous.

On Sunday November 29th, Steven R. Farrell's silver 2008 Toyota Tundra pickup truck was discovered in the "red" parking area of the Indianapolis International Airport. Subsequent investigation has revealed that he parked it there at approximately 8:40 p.m. on Friday November 27th. Further investigation has produced information that Farrell appeared to leave the airport in a white shuttle van or minivan-type taxi at approximately 9:07 p.m. that same evening. He was wearing a baseball hat and carrying a red overnight bag at the time.
